

BIO - FRANCIS OLSCHAFSKIE

francis@setforth.net | 617 - 834 - 4794

Francis W. Olschafskie is an internet system designer by trade having developed many web based first line technologies.

Mr. Olschafskie is the CEO and Founder of SetForth Research.

SetForth builds Collaboration, Video Streaming, Virtual Event, Online Meeting, Remote and Asynchronous Classrooms and Research Technology.

SetForth provides superior cloud-based experiences with the capability to manage vast libraries of content. SetForth has a reputation for building highly secure and sophisticated technology.

Applications for SetForth technology are far-reaching and span across multiple industries.

SetForth clients and collaborators include, the International Monetary Fund, NorthWell Health Network NY, Mount Sinai Research NYC, the American College of Cardiology, Oxford University Press, Cambridge University Press, the Museum of Modern Art NYC, and the Bodleian Library at Oxford University.

Mr. Olschafskie has held executive leadership roles in successful technology companies including CEO / Founder at Read and Note LLC and President at Setforth Research Institute, a Principal at Streamline Communications, Vice President and Chief Technical Officer at Bridgeline Software and a Founder and President at LightSpeed computers. His involvement included all aspects of the company, directing the company's growth from inception to the deployment of several breakthrough products.

His responsibilities included managing the technology development process; leading the technology development, leading creative teams, and researching new technologies, ensuring that the technology developed meets the rate of technological change. Clients he has worked with Include:

Financial

Fidelity Investments
Nationwide Financial
Pioneer Financial
John Hancock Insurance, Egroup
John Hancock Financial Services
Bain & Company
PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP

Government

United States Postal Services
Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services
Innovations in American Government

Human Resources

British Petroleum
Cambria Consulting

Unions

National Education Association
Service Employees International
Massachusetts Criminal Justice Training
Council

Educational Institutions

Western New England College
Harvard University
University of Massachusetts at Amherst
New York University
International Center for Photography, NYC

BIO - FRANCIS OLSCHAFSKIE

francis@setforth.net | 617 - 834 - 4794

Mr. Olschafskie training is in imaging, and he did his graduate work at Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Media Lab. He is a pioneer in the computer graphics industry. He was a founder of Lightspeed Computers where he worked with clients that included Apple, Digital, and Barco Industries, designing systems for the Graphic Arts, Multimedia, Video, and Electronic Publishing.

Mr. Olschafskie has held faculty positions at New York University, University of Massachusetts at Amherst, Boston University and has been a research associate at the Center for Urban Regional Policy at NorthEastern University where he developed interactive data management systems for the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in Washington DC.

Mr. Olschafskie has been awarded several patents from the U.S. patent office in the area of image acquisition, electronic publishing, internet solutions, and Optical Character Recognition.